Conference Support for Students/Doctoral Researchers

Thanks to generous support by Wilhelm und Else Heraeus-Stiftung, we are happy to offer financial support for student participants (PhD, MSc, BSc) to attend the international conference Cell Physics 2025:

- 1.1. 20 scholarships for doctoral researchers: 150 EUR conference fee + accommodation costs + daily allowance + travel costs (maximum amount: 470 EUR per person)
- 1.2. 10 scholarships for MSc and BSc students: 100 EUR conference fee + accommodation costs + daily allowance + travel costs (maximum amount: 420 EUR per person)
- 1.3. 10 scholarships for MSc and BSc students (Saarland University): 50 EUR conference fee

The following regulations apply:

- 1.4. Conference fee (early bird rate)
- 1.5. Accommodation costs: 20.00 € per night - according to attendance. If the distance to the place of residence is less than 70 km, the accommodation allowance is not applicable, as it is assumed that the participant stayed overnight at home.
- 1.6. Daily allowance: € 24.00 per day - according to attendance. For participants of the local university, the daily allowance does not apply, as it is assumed that meals are provided at home.
- 1.7. Travel costs: € 0.18 per kilometer (return trip).
- 1.8. Expenses will be reimbursed after the conference.

To be eligible for support, please submit the following documents until June 15th, 2025, to cellphys-ics2025@uni-saarland.de:

- 1.9. Motivation statement (max. 1 page)
- 1.10. Academic letter of reference issued (max. 1 page)

Only complete and timely applications will be considered. Decisions will be made until June 20th, 2025.
